

HEALTH IS

OUR FUTURE

American Indian Health and Science Symposium

Friday, November 5, 2004

12:00 noon – 4:00 pm, Lowell Center, UW-Madison Campus

Co-Hosts Aaron Birdbear and Ada Deer

Program Agenda

- 12:00 – 12:45 pm Lunch (provided) with Poster viewing and Networking
- 12:45 – 1:00 pm Blessing by Elder Jan Saiz and Opening Remarks by Ada Deer
- 1:00 – 1:40 pm Kathleen Annette, MD, Director, Bemidji Area Indian Health Service
- 1:40 – 2:15pm Charlene Smith, RN, BSN, Milwaukee County Human Services
- 2:15 – 2:30 pm Refreshments
- 2:30 – 3:30 pm American Indian student panel, moderated by Aaron Birdbear, with discussion and Q&A
- 3:30 – 4:00 pm Poster viewing with refreshments and networking

Post-Program Activities

Pow Wow: honoring Veteran's Day, hosted by Wunk Sheek, the UW- Madison American Indian student organization, held at 7:00 pm, Memorial Union

Program Co-Produced by:

American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES)
Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council (GLITC)
Native American Research Centers for Health (NARCH)
Southwest Wisconsin Area Health Education Center (SWAHEC)
UW American Indian Studies Program
UW Native American Health Working Group
Wisconsin Public Health & Health Policy Institute, UWMS

With Major Sponsorship from:

UW Center for the Study of Cultural Diversity in Healthcare (CDH)

And Financial Support from:

UW Medical School Dean's Office
UW School of Nursing Dean's Office
UW Pharmacy School Dean's Office
Spirit of Eagles: American Indian Leadership Initiative on Cancer
at the Mayo Clinic and the UW Comprehensive Cancer Center
Midwest AIDS Training and Education Center (MATEC)
UW Department of Population Health Sciences

Special appreciation for Renee Engle, Kiana Beaudin, Matt Landis, Mike Stauder, Judi Quirt, and Karen Goulet

