

Crosswalks between Topics Addressed in the UWPHI “Making Wisconsin the Healthiest State” Project and Healthiest Wisconsin (HW) 2010 Health Priorities

HEALTHIEST STATE PROJECT TOPICS	HW 2010: STATE HEALTH PRIORITIES
Healthy child development
Education	SES factors that influence health
Employment
Poverty and income	SES factors that influence health
Housing
Social connectedness	SES factors that influence health
Environmental contamination	Environmental & occupational health
Violent behavior	Intentional and Unintentional injuries and violence
Unsafe and unnecessary driving	Intentional and Unintentional injuries and violence
Injury-prone behavior	Intentional and Unintentional injuries and violence
Physical activity	Overweight, obesity, lack of physical activity
Nutrition	Adequate and appropriate nutrition
Substance use	Alcohol & other substance use/addiction
Risky sexual behavior	High risk sexual behavior
Smoking	Tobacco use and exposure
Access to health care	Access to primary & preventive health services
Quality of health care
Cost of health care

HW 2010: STATE HEALTH PRIORITIES	HEALTHIEST STATE PROJECT TOPICS
Access to primary & preventive health services	Health care access Health care quality Health care costs
Adequate and appropriate nutrition	Nutrition
Alcohol & other substance use/addiction	Substance abuse
Environmental & occupational health	Environmental contamination
Communicable diseases	Not specifically addressed
High risk sexual behavior	High risk sexual behavior
Intentional and Unintentional injuries and violence	Violence Driving Unintentional Injuries
Mental health/disorders	Addressed in multiple topics including health care access, health care quality, social connectedness
Overweight, obesity, lack of physical activity	Physical activity (and nutrition)
SES factors that influence health	Healthy child development Education Employment Poverty and income Housing Social connectedness
Tobacco use and exposure	Smoking