

Speaker Biographies:

Carter Wilson, Camden Coalition of Healthcare Providers, Carter Wilson serves as the Senior Manager for Portfolio and Performance Management at the Camden Coalition of Healthcare Providers. In this role, he works with program leads to plan and launch projects and monitors the progress of organization-wide initiatives, including the Medicaid ACO Demonstration Project. Prior to joining the Coalition, Carter worked for the U.S. House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health and Human Rights as a Legislative Fellow. He has a Bachelors in Economics from Old Dominion University and a Masters in Commerce and Economics from the University of New South Wales.

Kevin Moore, Wisconsin Division of Health Care Access and Accountability, Department of Health Services (DHS), was appointed by Governor Scott Walker to serve as Wisconsin's Medicaid Director and Administrator of the Division of Health Care Access and Accountability in the Department of Health Services (DHS). Moore previously served as DHS's Deputy Secretary for nearly two years where he was the chief operating officer and managed the day-to-day activities of the Department and assisted in development of overall policy objectives for the Department. Prior to his tenure as Deputy Secretary, he was appointed to Executive Assistant at DHS.

Kevin has also held positions as Policy Director at the Office of the Governor Elect Scott Walker, Research Assistant and Budget Advisor for State Representative Kitty Rhoades in the Wisconsin Legislature, and Policy Director for Assembly Speaker Mike Huebsch.

He has been named to serve on several boards and committees throughout his career such as the Wisconsin Information Technology Executive Steering Committee (ITESC), First Lady Walker's Fostering Futures Initiative, the Waste, Fraud and Abuse Elimination Taskforce, the State Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (SCAODA), and the Wisconsin Child Abuse and Neglect Board.

Moore holds dual Bachelor of Science degrees in History and Political Science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Carolyn Krause, PhD, RN, recently retired from Independent Care Health Plan (iCare). She is the President of Wisconsin Center of Nursing and Vice President of Lane & Associates. Dr. Krause completed her BSN at UW-Madison, MS-Nursing at UW-Milwaukee and PhD at UW-Madison in Nursing & Population Health. She has held leadership positions in acute care, community health and most recently in a managed care organization. She has experience in nursing systems, geriatric care delivery, utilization review, case management, rehabilitation services, discharge/transitional planning and managed care.

In her most recent position, she provided leadership and direction for the Care Coordination, Family Care Partnership and Pharmacy departments of iCare, a managed care organization that serves physically disabled, developmentally disabled, frail elderly and economically challenged populations. She is interested in the impact of social determinants of health on the ability of vulnerable populations to actively engage in primary and secondary preventive health actions.

She completed the Johnson & Johnson-Wharton Fellows Program in Management for Nurse Executives, at the University of Pennsylvania in 2003. She is an active member of the WI Nurses Association and served as President from 2009-2011. She is currently President of the WI Center for Nursing – the nursing workforce center for the state of Wisconsin. Dr. Krause has received leadership and service awards from various nursing organizations. In 2012 she obtained certification as a Nurse Executive from the American Nurses Credentialing Center.