
Evidence-Based Health Policy Project

Research | Analysis | Education | Dialogue

www.evidencebasedhealthpolicy.org

The Affordable Care Act and Medicaid: What Comes Next, and How Might the State Prepare? AN EBHPP CAPITOL BRIEFING

Wednesday, January 11th, 9:00-11:30am
State Capitol, Room 411 South
Overflow Seating Available in Rooms 400 Southeast and 425 Southwest

8:30-9:00am	Registration and Breakfast
9:00-9:10	Welcome and Introductions Representative Joe Sanfelippo And EBHPP Director Sam Austin
9:10-9:50	Dr. Gail Wilensky Via videoconference Economist and Senior Fellow at Project HOPE
9:50-10:05	Audience Questions for Dr. Gail Wilensky
10:05-10:25	Entitlement Reform Michael Heifetz State of Wisconsin Medicaid Director
10:25-10:45	High Deductible Plans and Health Savings Accounts Dr. Justin Sydnor Economist and Professor, UW-Madison School of Business
10:45-11:00	Repeal* and Replace* (*Insert Here: Wait a While) What Might Calm Insurance Markets and Assure Consumers Donna Friedsam Health Policy Programs Director, UW-Madison Population Health Institute
11:00-11:30	Audience Questions for Panel and Wrap-up

Engage in this dialogue online by following @UWHealthPolicy on Twitter and using #EBHPP for today's event.

