Community Health in the Fox Valley: How are Local Groups Sharing What They Know?

Friday, September 8th, 10:00am-12:00pm

James W. Perry Hall at UW-Fox Valley

Many public and private groups work to improve the health of our neighborhoods, schools, workplaces, and communities. They address issues that include substance use, mental health, obesity, and aging-related diseases. But whatever the focus, all these groups build a vital base of knowledge and expertise. Join us in Menasha to discuss this ongoing work in the Fox Valley.

The program will be co-hosted by

State Representatives

Dave Murphy, Mike Rohrkaste, and Amanda Stuck

and feature:
